A Little History

"Since it was founded in 1890, the General Federation of Women's Clubs has been a unifying force, bringing together local women's clubs from around the country and throughout the world. Although there is considerable diversity in the ages, interests, and experiences of GFWC clubwomen, all are united by a dedication to community improvement through volunteer service."

Accomplishments during GFWC's first century include: establishing 75 percent of the country's public libraries, developing kindergartens in the public schools, and working for food and drug regulation.

During its second century, the Federation has pledged to maintain its commitment to working for a better world. With "Unity in Diversity" as its motto and a strong umbrella of programs that clubs may adapt to suit the needs of their communities, GFWC encourages the flexibility that has enabled it to expand its reach in a rapidly changing society.

In GFWC Florida, our motto and mission and organization remain the same as GFWC....but we have a few others! Our GFWC Florida President Dianne Foerster has chosen the GFWC Florida Umbrella as her President's Project. The emphasis will be on all special needs from Autism, Alzheimer's, Arts for All, Special Olympics, Cancer Patients, Rescue Animals, Scholarships, Diabetes, Heart Health, Transplant Programs, Disabled veterans both physically and mentally, help for our First Responders and any and everything that calls out to your community.

GFWC Director of Junior Clubs Candice Postel has chosen Kicks for Kids, with an aim to providing shoes for children in need.

For all ongoing and updated information about GFWC Florida, please visit our website at gfwcflorida.org.

Some Good Financial Advice!

Fundraising

After forming your club, if you intend to engage in any fundraising activities or solicitation of donations from anyone other than your members, you will need to register with the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. There is no longer a fee to register or renew for charities that have less than $25,000 in revenue during the previous year, that do not have paid employees, and do not use a professional consultant/solicitor for fundraising. However, failure to register and file each year can result in large fines. To register your club, simply click on the link below and follow the directions on the form.

<http://forms.freshfromflorida.com/10110.pdf>

Incorporation

There are many reasons for incorporating your club. Incorporation turns your club into its own entity under the law. As such, even if the individual officers or directors of your club leave, the corporation still exists. In addition, incorporation limits the liability of your members. That's not to say that insurance for directors and officers and/or the club is not a good idea but it puts the assets of the club at risk and not its individual members' assets. Further, fundraising and grant eligibility may be hindered if your club is not incorporated. Finally, if you plan to apply for 501(c)3 status with the IRS, you must first incorporate.

Incorporation is easy. Follow the link to the application

https://efile.sunbiz.org/np_file.html

You can request a certified copy if required by your bank to open a bank account. That fee is an additional $8.75. Renew each year. You will have to list a mailing address. If your club does not have a clubhouse, then you will have to select a registered agent and provide her address. If you use a club member, make sure it is someone who is not likely to leave the area or your club. If stated this way in your articles of incorporation, the IRS will require an amendment which requires a club vote and another fee of $35, plus the $8.75 cost of a certified copy for the IRS. So, make sure it is correct the first time around.

501(c)3

Applying for 501(c)3 status will allow your club to more easily fundraise. Most business and individuals want to know that you are a 501(c)3 before they will give you donations or money. Applying for a 501(c)3 is a lot easier than it used to be. Most clubs that do not own a clubhouse and some that do may qualify to file the 1023EZ form. Click on the following link to review this form and complete the eligibility work- sheet to determine if you can file using this form.

<http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/i1023ez.pdf>.

Once you have determined that you are eligible, you have to register at “pay.gov” in order to apply. Click on the link below.

<https://pay.gov/public/registration>

The fee is $ 400 and your club should be able to easily complete the information without need of a CPA. However, you must file within 27 months of incorporation. You can still file after that time but it becomes more complicated. If you do not qualify for the EZ form due to owning real estate over $250,000 or if you plan to take in gross receipts of more than $50,000 per year, you can also file using Form 1023 at the following link.

This form comes with its own instructions that can be found at the following link:

While you can file Form 1023 yourself, if you have large assets or are expecting large gross receipts in the next three years, you may wish to hire a CPA. Fees may vary depending on your gross receipts.

Florida Department of Revenue - Sales Tax Collection and Exemption from Paying Sales Tax

Once you incorporate, you have to remit sales tax in certain situations for sales made by your club. The code is complicated and you should review the website to make sure you are complying with the appropriate tax codes. If you are not incorporated and doing a one-time event that would normally require collection of sales tax, you may be exempt from filing but you should review the requirements to determine if you qualify. Below is the link to the website with information on collecting sales tax.

http://dor.myflorida.com/dor/taxes/sales_tax.html

You can ask questions at this site and/or call the Department if you need clarification. You can also register to collect taxes.

Once you have your 501(c)3, you can also register for exemption from paying sales tax on items you purchase for the club. However, this does not exempt the club from collecting and remitting sales tax when appropriate. Below is the link to this form.

So Now What?

This manual will give you step-by-step suggestions on how to form a new GFWC Florida club and become a part of our organization.

First Meeting!

Send out publicity to your community news organizations. Invite friends, co-workers and community members through mail, email, Facebook, twitter, and/or phone messages to a meeting place. Use a home, a recreation center, a restaurant, a park, or even a computer to meet. (Yes, we have cyber clubs!) Think outside the box; no one says you have to have a clubhouse. Many clubs meet in libraries, churches, or restaurants. The only important issues you need to be concerned with is when and where you can talk in the meeting place, getting to know each other, and making plans.

Your first meeting should be short and sweet. Meetings should never be more than 90 minutes long. Remember your members' time is valuable.

Below is a sample agenda. Keep in mind that these are suggestions. Do what makes you and your potential new members comfortable and happy.

Start with a welcome / introduction of all present. How about a short icebreaker?

Have a maximum of 20 minutes of information about GFWC/GFWC Florida. You can use an experienced GFWC leader or obtain information from the following websites: gfwc.org and gfwcflorida.org. GFWC Florida Second President Terry Reese and GFWC Florida Director-Elect of Junior Women's Clubs Christa Nuckols are available to assist you.

Talk about projects or concerns the club might want to be involved with. Don't plan the projects yet. You will have plenty of time for that once you are organized.

Have a brief discussion about dues. GFWC and GFWC Florida dues are $23 per member per year. You will need to discuss the amount your club will need for administrative costs. (Dues are not used to support projects. Fundraisers are used to support projects). Average dues in GFWC Florida range from $30—$55 per member per year.

Brainstorm a name. All clubs that join GFWC must have GFWC in their name. Keep the name of your club simple and recognizable. Example: GFWC Sunshine State Woman's Club or GFWC Key West Junior Woman's Club.

Establish a time and a place for your next meeting and organize an e-mail, Facebook, twitter, and/or phone committee for follow-up and reminder calls.

Have refreshments. This gives members the chance to know and enjoy each other in a more informal setting!

Ideas for Your Second Meeting!

Time to get organized!

Have someone greet everyone as they come in and hand out name tags. Prior to the Meeting, set an agenda. Agendas help you stay on time and keep you from forgetting items that need to be discussed. An agenda is also a great place to jot down notes and serves as a starting place for the recording secretary.

Things that you will want to include on the agenda are as follows:

Welcome back those who were at the first meeting and welcome and introduce new attendees.

For your second meeting time put in a small amount of protocol. Have a United States Flag and recite the “Pledge Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America”. Distribute the “Collect” and the “Junior Pledge” (if a Junior Club), and recite them. The “Collect” and the “Junior Pledge” can be found on the GFWC Florida website.

Elect your officers for the next year. (President, First Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer at least) Once you have passed your bylaws, if other officers are listed in the new bylaws, elect them at that time.

Form a Bylaws Committee. Sample bylaws start on Page 12_. Remember these are sample bylaws. You may not want or need all that are listed at this time. If you only have ten members you probably do not need more than the four main officers and you can add as you grow. The only items you must have in your bylaws are Article I, Article II, Article III, Section 1, and Article IX, X, XI. These are needed for IRS regulations and will be needed, if you choose to have the 501c(3) tax status.

Our GFWC Florida Bylaws Committee will review your bylaws and make suggestions, so that you are in accordance with Federal Regulations and Robert’s Rules of Order. Your committee should meet and draft your bylaws for presentation at the third meeting. Copies of the proposed bylaws should be emailed to all potential members for discussion at the third meeting.

Set the next meeting date and place. Don’t forget refreshments.

Ideas for Your Third Meeting!

Wow, you are already at meeting number three. That is great! Time to get down to business.

The newly elected president should open the meeting with a welcome, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States, the Collect, and the Junior Pledge, if you are forming a Junior club. (All Pledges are said while standing, if able.)

Items to be included on the agenda are as follows:

New members and guests are introduced.

Presentation of the bylaws by the Bylaws Committee. You can use an open discussion or discuss each article, your choice. If the discussion of the bylaws creates motions, I would suggest, article by article, and go by motions to amend per article before moving on. The entire document would then need to be adopted by majority vote.

Collect the dues and instruct the Treasurer to open a bank account. You will need Minutes of this meeting and probably a copy of your bylaws for IRS requirements. You should also have at least two signatures on file for signing checks.

Survey the interest and abilities of your members. Brainstorm activities the membership is interested in, but be reasonable and realistic, and consider time and money constraints. Then narrow the list to 3 or 4 real possibilities and vote as a club to pursue the projects. Ask for volunteers for a committee to kick off the first project.

Form a communications committee (can be one person), whose job is to keep the members informed through a website, a Facebook account, a phone committee, and/or emails.

Remind them of the next meeting date, place, and who is responsible for refreshments.

Adjourn the meeting.

Enjoy refreshments and social time after the meeting is closed.

Congratulations!

At this point you will have completed all the requirements for membership in GFWC Florida. Your sample bylaws and various forms follow, along with the Collect and the Junior Pledge. At the end of this manual is a checklist and due dates for your new club to be welcomed into GFWC Florida.

A COLLECT FOR CLUBWOMEN

Keep us, oh God from pettiness;
Let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.
Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking;
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face,
Without self-pity and without prejudice,
May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.
Let us take time for all things; Make us grow calm, serene, gentile.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses,
Straightforward and unafraid.
Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences,
That in the big things of life we are at one.
And may we strive to touch and to know
The great common human heart of us all,
And, oh Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

The Collect was written as a personal prayer by Mary Stewart in 1904. She was just out of college and entering her first job as a high school principal. The first printing was in an obscure paragraph in Delineator magazine. A local printer in Longmont, Colorado, later made copies for a local federated club. Mary Stewart wrote the Collect while in Longmont.

The first organization to use the Collect or to print it in its yearbook was the General Federation of Women's Clubs. It has since been reprinted in many forms, in many lands. The Collect has also been set to music.

Mary Stewart said she offered the prayer for publication as a club woman's Collect because she felt "women working together for larger ends was something new." The Collect was not intended to be a creed. Every line of it is a petition, a prayer that is, a Collect.

A detailed history of Mary Stewart and the Collect is available from the General Federation of Women's Clubs Headquarters 1734 N Street NW, Washington D.C.20036.
